MADAM EVERETT, LONDON.

Mr. Editor:

I take this method of giving to my many friends an account of my trip through the South and East. Through the courtesy and invitation of Dr. James G. Robinson, of Arkansas, who held a series of evangelistic meetings in St. Louis, I went to Arkansas, and visited many points in that state, where conferences, colleges and lodges, and I did much to establish my business in the West. There are many pretty and prosperous cities and towns in Arkansas, and many of our people are doing well. Many of them are wealthy. At Helena, Arkansas, I was met by Dr. R. A. Williams, the leading physician of the city, and Supreme President of the Royal Circle of Friends, one of the largest fraternal orders in the South, and through him was given a splendid stopping place. While in Helena I addressed a number of agents in my standard army of women who are making a success handling HORTON-KAY preparations, and cultivating the habit by the Eddy-Horton System of hair-culture.

the Helena District by the invitation of the presiding elder, Mr. L. S. Overly, at Murfreesboro, Arkansas. I addressed the conference and made a number of pilgrimages and from these I visited several other points, including Stuttgart and Pithouan, which are two of Arkansas' important towns. Then I addressed the people in the churches and also the children at the public thoroughly advertised my business. My first visit to the state was at the district conference, of which Mr. Robinson is president. Here I addressed the conference, and my work was intensified, and I made a number of agents, and both goodbye to Arkansans to come home, ending more than a week's earnings.

play the role of Herodias in "John the Baptist." After a week or so of June, I decided to go to Philadelphia and attend the General Conference of the A. M. E. Church. While at the conference I met many distinguished men and women from all parts of the country. I made the acquaintance and formed the friendship of many who

I feel will be lasting. The General Conference was a great love, and a inspiration to all race-loving people. I like Philadelphia. I like it for the freedom of thought, and of action which one can exercise. I was entertained lavishly by some of the leading people of the city. I can never forget the hospitality and loyalty of the people of Baltimore, Md. I also find the pleasure of meeting and being entertained by Miss Minnie A. D. Maule, of Washington, D. C., who is a lawyer of distinction, and president of the "African Literary society" conducted by Negroes in the United States. The greatest orators of the country have spoken before this society, such persons as Keller-Miller, Theodore Roosevelt

Turner, Grover Cleveland, Henry Lincoln, Johnson and many others. Miss Yadre has given me an invitation to address that body. I taught my course to women in Philadelphia and Baltimore, Md., and thus partially started a program of the East for HORTON A reparations, and the Evelyn Horton League of Hialeah and Broward, Oklawaha

Aside from the week I did, I had some pleasures as well. I went out on a boat excursion, the boat being owned by a Colored man, and piloted by a regularly licensed Negro pilot. We swept down the river, past the well known Fort McHenry and on into the Chesapeake Bay. If for nothing

LOCAL BRANCH N. A. A. C. P.

After giving an account of the Waco affair in this issue we wish to call the attention of local Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to get busy. We cannot afford to be found inactive. We should hold meetings oftener and ever be ready to play our part in a crisis like this.

LET MOTON SPEAK

It is about time for Mr. Moton, principal of Tuskegee, to explain as to his apologetic attitude on the discriminating treatment received by his wife in the Pullman cars. Mr. Moton, it would seem, is the white man's choice for the Negroes' leader, and to be that with white men who are filled with bitterest race feeling, you must cater to their relentless and unfaltering prejudices on the race question. Prof. Moton is a man of unusual ability and mental compass, and in this regard none better than he could have been chosen to preside over Tuskegee; but—he has been overshadowed by a dominance of race feeling too strong for him to overcome; and, to live under it, he must acquiesce in "Jim Crow" cars, disfranchisement, segregation, and shut his eyes against the light of the flames by which lynchers are consuming some Negro alive, right in nearby surroundings.

Will Prof. Moton explain? Darg he explain? If he dare not then it shows how thick is the black cloud which overhangs the Negro in this country and how easy it is to corrupt the strongest intellect and pollute it with the race feelings that have cursed some of the American people for hundreds of years.

FIRST IN RESTRICTING THE NEGRO

When we speak of states that oppress the Negro we think of Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, etc., but it seems now as if Florida is about to run away with the prize. In some counties of Florida they enforce a law preventing the Negro from buying land if a majority who own land in such county are white. It is a land segregation scheme—like, if a majority of residents in a block are white, a Negro cannot move into that block. Why don't they protect the minority? A majority has as much right to protection as a majority.

But see how this segregation spreads and encompasses nearly every activity of life. They have a law in Florida which prevents whites from teaching in colored schools. This law is three years old, and they took Easter Sunday, a holy day, to enforce it for the first time. That, too, was the Easter Sunday of this year.

Three nists, Catholics, of St. Joseph's School, were arrested by order of Gov. Fernald, on April 24, 1916, charged with the crime of teaching colored children in St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States. The school, wherein they taught was not a state school; it was sustained by the Catholic Church, and the sisters were engaged in the laudable work of educating the intellect and enlarging the moral sense of little Negro boys and girls. This was the crime that caused the Governor of Florida to order their arrest. Yes this is a fact. This was done in Florida. This was done on the holy day of Easter Sunday. This is the land of the free and the home of the brave. Yes this is a Christian country, so called at most; and there was no adverse comment, no sense of shame. There is a justification, though, of the same class of reasoning that the insane assassin uses when he says that God told him to murder his victim.

FIGHTING MITCHELL TAKES HIS ROLE

According to an account that appeared in The Richmond Planet, John Mitchell, Jr., who is editor, and is known as "Fighting Mitchell" has cowardly withdrawn his charges against the Police officers who, as he put it, "outrageously treated him" when he was arrested sometime ago.

In his letters to the Police commissioners, Mitchell states that at the earnest solicitation of many white friends, he decided to withdraw the charges against the accused officers and vindicting them of any wrong.

The Police Commissioners at their first meeting refused to dismiss the charges against the officers, and it was only after Editor Mitchell came before them, and begged and put up a pitiful tale when the charges dropped. Thus were the officers vindicated and licensed to do the same thing again.

We regret very much that a man of Mr. Mitchell's standing as an editor and banker were forced or volunteered to take such a course under the circumstances. Such actions on the part of the leading men of the race revive the time-worn statement that the most intelligent among us cannot be insulted.

were not enough places to go around, so somebody cut off an ear for his kippah. The "Waco Times Herald" published the same afternoon said: "On the way to the scene of the burning people on every hand took a hand in showing their feelings in the matter by striking the negro with anything obtainable; some struck him with shovels, bricks, clubs, and others stabbed him, and cut him until when he was strung up his body was a solid color of red, the blood of many wounds inflicted covered him from head to foot."

They took Washington to a tree on the City Hall lawn just outside the window of his honor, the mayor, which he generously shared with Mr. Gilder. The photographer who took the picture is indebted for our ears. A chain was thrown over the limb of this tree, and while the fire was being lit, this bloody thing was hoisted into the air where everyone would have a full view. A man, who works for Goldstein & Mangle, whose windows look out on the square, told the investigator who saw them upon the led. As the chain tightened around his neck, this half-dressed creature reached up convulsively to grab it, so they cut his fingers off.

The "Waco Times Herald" makes no bones of it. "Fingers, ears, pieces of clothing, toes, and other parts of the Negro's body were cut off by members of the mob that had crowded to the scene as if by magic when the charge by the mob was heralded over the city. As the smoke rose to the heavens, the mass of people, numbering in the neighborhood of 10,000, crowding the City Hall lawn and overflowing the square, hanging from the windows of buildings, viewing the scene from the tops of buildings and trees, set up a shout that was heard blocks away. Onlookers were banging from the windows of the City Hall and every other building that commanded a sight of the burning, and as the smoke billowed over the scene, shouts of delight went up from the thousands of throats, and apparently everybody demonstrated in some way their satisfaction."

The body of young Washington was hurled to a crisp and was left for some time smoldering in the remains of the fire. "Women and children who desired to view the scene were crowded to the door, the crowd passing to let them look on," says the newspaper account. One father, when questioned about the propriety of holding his little son on his shoulder where he could get a good view, is reported as saying:

"My son can't learn too young the power of the word 'burn'."

At twelve o'clock the crowd adjourned for lunch, as usual; but by a quarter past one some of the boys were back to continue the fun. A cowboy who had ridden in off the range arrested a diversion by lancing the corpse and flung it over town with the remains of the fire at the end of his lariat. When the head bounced off as he galloped through the "reservation," the ghetto where the Negroes and prostitutes are segregated, he had set it up on one of the doorposts and extracted the loose teeth, which are reported to have brought as high as five dollars apiece. Some men who could afford such rare and permanent novelties. The few fragments which held together till night, the satisfactor was able to chuck into a very small ash can.

When a crowd of American tourists in Texas, a great southern college town, it is a Christian city of 40,000 inhabitants boasting thirty-five white and twenty-four colored churches. Yet no reasonable voice was raised in protest that bloody Monday, and only one has been since.

Those who believe that a cry to heaven should be raised against this kind of ever-blasting, by legal recognition, by publicity, by co-operation with the best white element of the south, by political agitation, are urged to support the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to raise this $10,000 anti-burning fund before August 1. Contributions should be sent to Oswald Garrison Villard, treasurer, at the national headquarters of the organization, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York. Rev. Stash, Secretary.

THE WACO MOB

THE TORTURE

THE LYNCHING RECORD FOR THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1916

According to the record kept by the Division of Records and Research of the Tuskegee Institute there have been during the first six months of the year 25 lynchings. This is 9 less than the number, 34, for the same period last year. Of those lynched 23 were Negroes and 2 were whites. In the first six months of 1915 there were 24 Negroes and 10 white lynched.

Five, or one-fifth of those put to death, were charged with rape. Other causes of lynchings were: slapping a boy, brushing against a girl on the street, insult, charged with attempting to assist an accused of murder to escape, robbing store, killing officers of the law and murder. Eight or almost one-third of the total lynchings occurred in the state of Georgia.

Very truly yours,
 Division of Records and Research.

else, I am proud of my trip, because of the opportunity to go out on the bay. There is a romance connected with the life of my sainted mother and father, which is intertwined with the Chesapeake Bay, but for which there would be no Evelyn Horton, hence it has always been my desire to see this bay. Mr. Jones, a young man, who owns several automobiles and conducts a number of barber shops, took a number of us in his large Buick, and carried us through the large parks of Baltimore, and out twenty miles in the country, which was one of the grandest scenes of my trip. I was entertained at the home of Miss Skinner, who for a number of years was a regular member of the United States Government Service force, being the only colored person who ever held such a position. She, with Dr. Winstead, conducted a meat drug store. At the reception tendered me at her home, she had guests there from Philadelphia, New York, Chicago and many of the leading men and women of Baltimore, including lawyers, doctors, ministers and men and women of every business and profession.

On my return home I found that my wardrobe had greatly increased in each department. The operating department under the supervision of Miss Dorothy V. Horton, my oldest daughter, and her assistants, made a grand report with many well-dressed customers and new business. The office, under the supervision of Miss Hazel E. Brown and her assistants, also made a splendid report. The shipping department conducted by Miss Evelyn Horton, my youngest daughter and her assistants, was most satisfactory.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH

Regardless of the extremely warm weather last Sunday, there was a large number in attendance. Rev. Perry preached morning and evening. Pastor Perry has begun a series of sermons that are short and powerful. Our Financial Rally was a success. Next Sunday, July 9, will be our covenant service at 10:30 a. m. and communion at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, July 10, will be the annual outing of the Sunday school, at O'Fallon Park, grounds number one and two. All churches and Sunday schools are invited to come out and spend the day with us.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

After a lovely prayer service conducted by Brother Robert Thomas, at 5:30 a. m. the whole army of warriors were prepared for an all-day battle. Brother Peter Thomas led the first assembly at eleven and very ably did his faithful every expectation choosing Matt. 25:10, subject, "Duty." The pastor preached the annual sermon for the Christian Union at 3:00 p. m., discarding from Ruth 1:3, subject, "Perseverance." The high tide was reached at 8:00 p. m. when the pastor selected for his text, "Paul in Prison," Acts 21:13. A worthy subject and so devoutly portrayed.

Pastor Disbrow wishes to see a full attendance on Sunday morning.

ST. JAMES NOTES

The District Conference Sunday-school Convention and A. C. E. League, held a three days' session in St. James A. M. E. Church, last week. Very interesting sessions were held and discussed. The three departments, stewards, Sunday-school workers and Endeavorers, unite with each other in extending the delegates. A novel feature was the "sunrise prayer meeting," held at four o'clock Friday morning. At five o'clock a delicious breakfast was served to all workers and Endeavorers. The tables, arranged in the form of the letter T, were very pretty with their many cloths beautifully decorated with flowers. A novel feature was a big day in Zion. Prof. Jackson, the noted pipe-organist, led, cheered his hearers and they could say as did the Queen of Sheba, "The Half has Not Been Told." The ritual Sunday night was par excellence. Five hundred persons were present.
